My sincere condolences go out to Mac's very close family, and his many friends. He was a great friend to me and my wife Judy. He enjoyed playing poker with friends. I recall him inviting some of us over to watch the Tyson/Hollifield fight in Nov 96, and poker nights.at at your home Pam. I would visit him on breaks at work. Mac was hog ringing seat covers at that time. He was a force that changed my life for the better. I moved in 97 and lost contact with him. I surely regret that, and I'm grateful for his helping hand. Rest in peace brother Mac. May his family be guided by the Lords helping hands today and always.
