Marge was the best neighbor anyone could have. She was always bringing us goodies and her famous pot roast. We spent many times discussing politics and current events. She would do anything for you even if she was busy. We will miss her dearly.

It's so difficult to say goodbye to a dear friend of over 70 years, We graduated together and when both were first married we lived just blocks away from each other in Lakewood. Our paths took us to Castalia and T&M to Burton but visits continued. As everyone retired we found ourselves on the same street in Marblehead. Our husbands, Tom and Ray were best friends, as well. So many good times, so many wonderful memories. The best to you Bryan and family. I so remember the day you were born. With love, Susan
