Letter to Mary: So sorry for the family loss. I probably knew you Mary longer than most. Religious woman, great cook, loving mother. You worked so hard as a young divorced woman with two jobs at a time. You made sure those little girls had what they needed. You also made sure while working long hrs the girls were never alone. Your grass still got mowed and your house was always clean. I have such great memories at this time period. I would often run around with you and your daughters in your Studebaker. We would attend church, stop at Marges for Sunday dinner. Sometimes you and Mom would take us blackberry picking and sometimes we would go to Sunshine dairies for something to eat. We visited your Dad and Sophie. I remember being at your wedding to Bill. I was often with you to visit Mr. Mrs Fidler. They loved their ex daughter in law. They played a big part in your life until they passed. Mary you gave me so many good times, as a child and even as a adult. I think I have been to most houses you lived in. I am sure it was hard when you married Bill. He had his own children and everyone with a different personality combine that as teenagers. Then came MarySue and George. It was yours mine and ours. As time went on You and Bill definitely had a full house on West Ridge Rd . My Mom and Dad tried to help out in those lean yrs. Later in your life I could talk to you for hrs. When my Mom passed Mary you would call me and check in to see if I was okay. That was so sweet and I did appreciate it. I know heaven opened those gates for you with Bill and the others welcoming you into Heavens gate. I bought you a card that is in my car. I got sidetrack with vacation I didnt mail it. It is a thinking of you card! Till we meet again thanks for all the memories you left me. Love you Mary Carol, MarySue, George and the grandchildren it is okay to cry for yourself, but Mary would want you all to be happy, she is now at peace!
