James Radachi Obituary

James "Casey" Radachi, 65, a life long resident of Elyria, passed away September 8, 2021 following a battle with pancreatic cancer. He was born June 15, 1956 in Elyria and was a graduate of Elyria High School. James enjoyed visiting sites and cities throughout the United States while working as a mover and driver for Allied Van Lines. His greatest joy was being a grandparent and he often stated that the children are our future. James is survived by a son, Christopher Radachi; granddaughter, Scarlett Radachi, both of Lancaster, OH; brothers, William (Pat) of Troutville, VA, Richard (Karen) of Grafton, Frank (Debbie) of Wellington and Patrick of Dayton; sister, Debbie (John) Forcucci of Elyria; his companion and caregiver, Yancey Wegelin and numerous nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents, Frank V. and Patricia Ann (nee Amato) Radachi. Per James' request, there will be no services.
