Nance Donnelly posted:

I met Rose Ann when we were both in the hospital as children fifty years ago. We were roommates, and we kept each other's spirits up, especially since we had to be there at Easter. Later, she came to my birthday party as an honored guest. We lost touch, but I often thought about her. My deepest sympathies go to her family and friends. I know she will be so profoundly missed. Rest in well-deserved peace, dear Rose Ann.
