Rodney Spence posted:

Paul was a good guy and friend. He loved watching WWF wrestling, old John Wayne movies, and crime dramas like Sons of Anarchy. We also hung around at the pubs where he liked his cold PBR beer, Johnny Cash music on the jukebox, and playing pool. He was a kind and gentle soul and believed in Jesus as his Lord and Savior who has built him a mansion where he now lives in His heaven. See you again Paul and watch out for us down here in this troubled world. God bless.
