Paul was a dedicated father. I remember his coaching the kids at Little League South. It is difficult, cousins, to let go of our parents, no matter their age. Please know that Lynda and I share just a portion of your great pain. God bless! Barry and Lynda Ryan

We were so sorry to hear about Paul. He was an amazing man. Everyone that knew him loved him. May he Rest In Peace. I know there were several people waiting at heavens gates for him, your mom being the first one. They are together again and no more pain for either one. We love you all and will keep you in our thoughts and prayers.
