Growing up as a teenager and in my 20s I was able to see and value the friendship that existed between my dad Shannon Mowery and Bob. Bob was like one of our family members as we gathered with my uncles and cousins. His sense of humor was unique and appreciated in our family. Rest In Peace my friend aka Cookout Court

It is so sad to lose a childhood friend. I first met Bob at Jefferson Jr. High. I was a 7th grader and Bob was in 8th. He took under his wing and helped me navigate growing up. One of my early memories was going up to his bedroom playing a 45 record, the song was "A white sport and a pink carnation". We remained friends these of the years. He was always a immaculate dresser and the girls loved him. Despite his disability, he never use it as an excuse. He excelled in all sports and competed with the best. I always appreciated his quick wit and sense of humor, as did my Mother, they had a special bond. He was a great singer also and loved music. RIP Bobby, you will be missed.
