Although we lost touch many years ago, I still remember Bob and the rest of the Clark family. My grandmother was Doris Buswell, so the Clarks are my cousins. I am the daughter of Dick and Shirley Slack. We left Elyria in 1962, but I'll never forget the summer of 1968 that I spent with the Clarks, especially Chris, when I was 16. Jeff and Cathy, I wish you peace and comfort from the memories of you father.
