I'm so sad to learn of this news. Jenni is one of the first people I remember meeting at North Junior High - we ate lunch together all the time - she taught me the difference between "preps" and "stoners" and was always laughing. She was kind to everyone. My prayers are with her closest family and friends.

As time passes the same memories will begin to bring you joy and smiles. But until that time, as your broken hearts are trying to heal, we hope it helps to know that many friends and family members are thinking of you and holding you near their hearts.
