It is with great pride I wear the Vincent name as my middle name, my mother was Anne Kathryn Vincent Michel and George's sister and was a very special women. George Vincent is a extraordinary very special man who was loved and respected by all. I will miss him dearly as will we all and anyone who ever met him. They don't make them like that anymore and they broke the mold with George. It is hard to comprehend what a great man he was as I can not imagine what it would be like to be sitting in a fox hole being shot at, at the age of 19. I cannot thank him and our Veterans enough for the sacrifice they made to keep us safe and for our Freedom. The US and all of us own them all a great debt of gratitude. George continued that greatness throughout his life and raised a wonderful loving family who I enjoy being with and growing up with. Barb and Tom are like brother and sister to me and I love them very much and see a lot of George in them. I wish them all the best in this never ending hard thing to do which is laying your parents to rest. God Bless you all.
