My husband Gregg taught at WG Junior High and I taught at WGHS when Wally was there. We knew Patty's and Wally's long time friends from when they were at Wittenberg, John and Mary Dixon. I also graduated from Wittenberg U., and, despite the difference in age, we became friends. I know that Patty was absolutely devastated when Wally died. I felt so bad for her. She was a beautiful woman, inside and out. We lost touch once she sold her house in Chesterland, but I thought of her often. I truly believe that Pat is happy once again in Wally's arms. I am so sorry for your loss.
