Dear Mike and the Radosevich family, I was saddened to hear of June's passing. She and Mike were great friends of my parents, Jack and Eve Fox. And I remember them very well from church. As I understand it, Eve and Mike worked together, prior to the opening of Michael's Jewelers, for another jeweler (Moss', I think). They may have gone to high school together. And I think the friendship between the couple flourished during their dating years. My mom passed in 2011 and my dad in 1979. My brother, Jack, lives in Orlando and was friends with one of the boys during high school. Jack has two daughters (one married with a son) and I have two sons (both married, one with a son). I just wanted to reach out, as I have thought of your family often, especially when driving past Scott's office so many times on my visits to Elyria to care for my mom. I wish you all peace and many lovely family memories. Sincerely, Jill (Fox) Bernaciak
