Aunt Marge was a very special lady who was loved by all who knew her. She touched each one of our lives in a very special way. Always willing to lend a helping hand to all. She will be dearly missed, fondly remembered, and live in hearts forever. May God rest your soul. Give my Dad, Joe, Grandma, and Aunt Marianne a hug from me. I know that you are another guardian angel watching over me/us. Love and miss you....your niece Michelle so proud to call this woman my great aunt! She was always so much fun to be around and always knew just how to put a smile on your face. I admired her strength and honesty that was bold yet encouraging at the same time. She loved others as she loved herself and I know she is being rewarded for that in heaven. I will see you again one day, in a much better place. Love you, birthday twin!
