To The Family, I would like to extend my deepest sympathy in the passing of your loved one. God created us to be happy and to live forever and this is the reason why death is so hard for us to accept. We all look forward to the day when our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ fulfills his promise to bring our dead loved ones back to life with the opportunity to live forever. May the Holy Scriptures bring you comfort at this difficult time. Sincerely, Mr. Terry

My family and I extend our sympathy to Alma's family. I met her when Almaleen and I became friends 50 years ago. Alma always greeted me with a smile and made me feel welcomed in her home. I pray the many many memories will bring comfort to her family.

To My Hometown Family: Know that I am keeping you all in my prayers. Mrs. Macon was most certainly a significant figure in my young life. Her love of life and kindness was immeasurable. May you find comfort in the many, yes many, wonderful memories you shared with her. I know I will. What a blessing to us all! Love, Denise "Neicy (as she called me)" Hopewell & Family
