Gloria Easterday Obituary

Gloria J. Easterday, 87, died November 5, 2014 at her home in Sheffield Lake. She was born October 17, 1927 in New York City and was a longtime resident of Elyria. Gloria attended Elyria High School and was a caring mother and homemaker. She adopted and cared for unwanted rabbits. She had a passion for tattoos and enjoyed puzzles, reading, listening to music, watching movies and searching on the internet. Gloria is survived by sons David (Nancy) Easterday, William (Shirley) Easterday, James (Charles Luzius) Easterday and Joseph Easterday; daughters Nancy (Charles) Farlow, Veronica (Ron Gosselin) Easterday, Terese Easterday and Margo (Charles) Reich, with whom she made her home; stepdaughter Karen (Fred) Oien; grandchildren Scott, Brian and Stephen Easterday and Heather Parrish and a great grandson, Colt Hales. She was preceded in death by her husband Joseph Easterday; son Michael; mother Agnes West and father James Clark. Memorial contributions may be made to Hospice of the Western Reserve, 17876 St. Clair Ave., Cleveland, OH 44110. Arrangements are in the care of Dicken Funeral Home and Cremation Service, Elyria. Just heard the news, saddened and personally touched by the loss. Our condolences to the family on this passing. In my case (Phil) I am warmed by the memory of this truly vibrant woman. I feel gratified that I knew her as a kid, since it's those memories that become more lucid as time moves on. Our best to all of you. Phil & Steph
