To the family of Suzi, I have know Suzi for many years, I loved her laugh and smile. We were leaving to go go Florida and stopped into Walmart around the first week in January in Oberlin she was in charge of changing rooms and phones that day. We had a little conversation about her boys and the grandchildren, She was so happy that day talking about her family. She spoke of her trip out of the country to see the kids. I am so sorry for your families loss.

My dearest little sister... Many times over the past few days my thoughts and prayers have turned to you. Thinkin of all the things that have happened to both of us, in what seems an eternal lifetime. The kids, the fun times, and yes even a couple of bad ones...but thinking of you none the less. Words cannot fill the empty place in my heart having learned that you are no longer here. Know that even tho I cant be there physically, in my heart, and in my mind I stand there next to you, missing you. My eyes fill with tears knowing that I can never again hear the sound of your voice, and in my heart there is a hole...
