I just found out about your daughter's passing. I was so shocked and saddened by the news. I had the pleasure of meeting her with my daughter at Berry's restaurant a few years ago. At that time, she helped my daughter with some personal problems when she was going to the counseling center in Norwalk. I just wanted you to know that she helped my daughter so much and we were both impressed by her outgoing personality and her understanding. To this date, my daughter, who is also 28, is happy, healthy, and expecting her first baby in February. It took her a few more years to do so, but she never forgot the talks she had with Julie. I hope this brings you some comfort, as my daughter and I both appreciate what she did for her. Remembering her and her family in our prayers.

I can not think or speak any words that will make Julie appear instantly from the Heavenly grace she now resides at. What is important is that for the short time that I knew Julie she was a angel in disguise. Julie always brought her light where ever she traveled. I am not surprised that God took her back to be with him. Thank You for teaching us so much in your short time on earth visiting us human beings.

Nickie was a kind and sweet person, inside and out. May God hold her in the palm of his hands and let her sleep in peace. For now she will find the peace and comfort she so deserves. So young to leave us here, without her. My deepest sympathy goes out to her family and friends..
