Grandma, I love you. I will miss you everyday. I will teach my kids how to play skipbo just like you, Amanda, and I would do. That is one of my favorite memories with you. The fun we would have from talking and laughing together over a friendly card game. You were such a wonderful grandma and thank you for the helping hand you had in raising my brothers and myself throughout the years. Tell Jacob I love him and miss him deeply everyday as well. I am happy you will have each other in heaven now. Wait for us at the gate because one day we will all be together again.
