There are no words powerful enough to express sorrow for your loss. May you take solace in the great memories you have. May God grant you peace and comfort while the memories you cherish bring solace when you need it. May you always remember, "God is healing the brokenhearted ones and binding up their painful spots" -Psalms 147:3 With heartfelt sympathy and prayers

I did not know Hannah as well as I would of liked to, but she always was so sweet when we talked together. I know that you all, will miss her very much. Now she and Malcolm are in peace, no more health issues or other things to cause them to worry. They are sleeping until they hear Jehovah God call their names and then they will wake up with perfectly healthy bodies and will feel great. May your memories of them bring you joy and peace, until you see them again. My prayers and thoughts are with you.
