We are so sorry to learn of Tom's passing. Having just gotten settled in Texas for the winter months, loosing a Elyria friend is sad. Our condolences to his entire family. We spoke of Tom just recently with other friends at the Elks Club. Tom was a great guy and will be missed.

To my cousins, I'm sure you will miss Tom forever more. I remember him being such a fun kid. We moved west in 1955, so Tom was only 7 then. Tom, Tim and Bob, all the boy cousins, used to have such fun playing together when we were able to take a trip to Ohio. I miss all of you very much and wish I were close enough to visit whenever I wanted some of my cousins close to me. I'm so sorry about Tommy. Love Always, Pat, David, Kathy & Steve.
