I'm so sad to hear my Aunt Ida passed away. She was always a joy and the heart of our family gatherings. A bubbly personality, always positive, always saw the best in people. And WHAT a cook! She left us with a legacy of fabulous meals that are some of my earliest memories. Aunt Ida's Easter cheese, pastries and her always fabulous cabbage rolls. She catered my first wedding at a discount because she knew I was broke, and made it so special. She was a dear. My condolences to Nancy, Judy, Jimmy & David. Love, Annette

With much sorrow that our beloved Aunt Ida has passed, and with much dismay that we're not there today. My favorite memories are her visits to Pennsylvania to share many good times with her sister, Julia. Their exploits in the kitchen experimenting with new recipes will forever remain legendary.
