Arthur Horn Obituary

Arthur Horn, 83, father of Scott (Jane) Horn, Wendy (Frank) Horvath (nee Horn) and Dean (David) Horn; step father to Dawn (Jared) Smith (nee Tanner), passed away peacefully at Avenue at North Ridgeville at sundown on Summer Solstice 2025. Aside from his children, Art is survived by his former wife, Teresa James, four grandchildren, a dear nephew and many cousins and friends.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Edward and Helen Horn (nee Bakies), his brother Alan Horn, and his niece, Kimberly Glauner (nee Horn).

Art most loved music and nature. He spent many days hiking, mostly in the southern Appalachians where he lived for fifteen years before moving back to the Cleveland area.

In keeping with Art's humble spirit, a simple celebration of life will be at 11:30 am Saturday, June 28, 2025 at Dicken Funeral Home & Cremation Service, 323 Middle Avenue, Elyria. Friends will be received from 10:30 am to 11:30 am.

His earthly remains will be scattered on his favorite trail in the Great Smoky Mountains by his neighbors and friends there.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made in Art's name to the Friends of the Great Smoky Mountains at

I was introduced to Art by my parents. He lived just above them in the mountains of western North Carolina. He did some much for them and in turn mom would frequently invite him to dinner. I am forever grateful to him for keeping an eye out for them! We became great friends and hiked many trails in the mountains. His smile, sense of humor made for an enduring friendship. It was a very sad day when he moved back to Cleveland as it felt like we were losing a family member! He will always be with me as I continue hiking in the mountains, rest in peace, Art!

Art was a wonderful friend and neighbor to us when he lived in his NC mountain house. He and my late husband Jeff were especially good friends, spending untold hours together talking over life, faith, politics and just razzing each other in general. I have fond memories of him and will miss his kind and gentle soul.
