Fred Llewellyn Obituary

Fred R. Llewellyn, 75, of Elyria, died Thursday September 26, 2024 in his home. He was born September 23, 1949 in Elyria and was a 1967 graduate of Elyria High School. Fred was self employed and worked hard at whatever he did. He loved reggae music, taking photos and was known as the “photo king”.

Fred is survived by his wife, Anna L. Llewellyn; their adopted son, Willie Lawson of Cleveland; sisters, Sarah (Martin-dec) Southwold of The Netherlands and Christie (Thomas) Lee of Raleigh, NC; niece, Annah Lee; nephews, Andrew Southwold and Sherman (Jessica) Lee; great-nephew, Henry Gordon and a host of friends and reggae family.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Harold and Jane Llewellyn.

Friends will be received Monday, October 7, 2024 from 10:00 am until the time of an 11:00 am memorial service at Dicken Funeral Home & Cremation Service, 323 Middle Avenue, Elyria. Reverend Tennille Power, pastor of First United Methodist Church, Elyria will officiate.

Fred was a wonderfully spirited man who brought sheer joy to wherever he went and especially to The Reggae Scene. His smile was contagious and he had unique dance moves. Whenever I was with him, he was drenched in happiness. I love you Fred Llewellyn âœ. You will be greatly missed. Peace to his beloved wife Anna and all of his loved ones.
