So sorry to hear of this so late. I met Susan at a vendor show and she came to my jewelry shop in Seville. She went from customer to helper to dear friend. She went with me to vendor shows and visited during our Seville yard sales. I was able to visit her when she moved out of her home. She loved her dogs. I was able to get jewelry with the dogs pictures for her. She was somewhat of a hoarder, but she was the nicest, sweetest person. I wish I had been to see her one last time. I will miss her a lot. I'm glad I have so many memories with her.
