I will always appreciate the laughter and wisdom of jami. He helped me through a lot of trying times in life and he will forever be missed. He was my best friend I ever had and ever will. I do remember him telling me about when he went to heaven he would get the job of cleaning up the stalls of all the animals . That would be his luck he said. My heart breaks because I did not want him to leave this earth it was better with him in it .
