I love you ma... Long live our Queen for she gave us breath/ Long love our Queen as we lay her to rest/ Displays of courage and determination through the battles that she fought/ Forever we will cherish and value the lessons that she taught/ A special life she dedicated to spreading love and providing care/ Her gentle touch and infectious laugh were equally as rare/ Her wings will guide her home as she approaches Heavens gate/ Her working hands and tired feet will finally get a break/ You taught us to be courageous and always face our fear/ To make the most of life and value the time that we are here/ We pray for signs you are still with us, and that you will visit in our dreams/ Until the day we meet again.. Long Live Our Queen 🙏
