I love you so much Roderick ðŸ™ðŸ™» Thank you for keeping me safe from my ex fianc back then when we had a nasty break up. Thank you for always being there for me when I was depressed and when my anxiety was in over drive. Thank you for being there when I needed someone to talk too, when I needed advice. Thank you for always believing in me. For defending me when people bullied me and made me feel so small and worthless. Thank you for creating beautiful memories with me, for making me smile and laugh, thank you for being in my life. I love you friend, you will always hold a place in my heart. You truly were an earth Angel who brought light in so many of our lives. Look over all of us, I look forward for the next time we meet when I cross the rainbow bridge. Rod was a great guy and even though I didn't keep in touch I wished him all the best and he was a big part of my life before I had my kids and I always missed his humor. He was there to make me laugh and brighten my day when I was in a very depressed state. He was and will always be a friend of mine.
