Dear Dennis. I was so sorry to read about your dear dads passing. He was a great neighbor all those years to my mom and dad, and later helped my mom with so many things as she got older. So many memories there on West Ridge Road. I will always remember the days of swimming in the pool and playing catch with you and your dad in the backyard.

Dear Dennis and Family, We send our love and heartfelt condolences during this time of mourning on the passing of your Dad. Like Leon says, your "great memories" celebrating his long and wonderful Life will make you smile and warm your hearts and we pray his Spirit constantly reaches out and touches yours to remind you that he'll always be with you!!
