I am so thankful to have known you. You welcomed my family into your home. You treated us like your family. Never asking anything in return. You would pop up in our lives even long after our paths had gone separate ways to say hello and let us know you were still hanging in there, making plans. I cant believe you are gone. But God's plans are way bigger than ours. I think a John with wings and a halo sounds pretty cool. Rest easy buddy. 🙏•

Dont think of him as gone away his journeys just begun, life holds so many facets this earth is only one. Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years. Think how he must be wishing that we could know today how nothing but our sadness can really pass away. And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched for nothing loved is ever lost and he was loved so much.

When I was in the darkest moments of my life, John was a warm and guiding light. He would just pop up and check on me. He never judged me. He was a very rare person in this world. When I would see him, I would hug him. Couldn't imagine doing anything different. I am sad that you are gone John. This world needs more people like you. Rest in peace my friend.
