I am so sorry to hear of Uncle Dick's death. I have always regretted not keeping a closer connection to so many of my uncles and cousins around the country. What I remember faintly is a visit to you in the late 50's, and I loved the open fields! Aunt Shirley, Lori and I pray for peace and comfort for you, your kids and grand kids. We know that regardless fo age and circumstance, when someone we love dies, it always feels like its too soon. Grace and peace to you.
