Mike and June were lifelong friends of my parents, Jack and Eve Fox. We will always remember them as emblematic of the great generation: kind, loyal and loving to all.

My condolences to Mike's survivors. Even though we spent 12 years in school together, I learned things from his obit I had not known before. I always enjoyed our times together when the class of 1943 had their occasional reunions. His quick wit and sense of humor were a hallmark that will live on in my memory. As you mourn his passing, I pray you also will celebrate a remarkable life well lived.
