Paul And Ruth Anderson posted:

We are sorry to hear of Mary's passing. We had gotten a Christmas card from her. Paul knew her from working with her at the Village. Paul, who is a retired minister, baptized her. Ruth got to know her from him! We both loved her. She was a beautiful Christian lady and we were both blessed to have known her. We know she will be missed by family and friends but she is with her Lord and Savior. We visited her many times in her apartment when we were living in Elyria. In December 2014, we moved to Toledo to live with our son but we kept in touch by Christmas cards! She leaves behind a beautiful family! She loved her cat and we also loved our two cats. Her cat looked exactly like one of ours. Love and hugs from Paul and Ruth Anderson with many happy memories.
