Leona Mandeville Obituary

Leona Kinder Mandeville (nee Smith), 99, of Elyria, Ohio and formerly of Hurricane, WV where she spent most of her life, died April 26, 2020. She was born March 21, 1921 in Bulger, WV where she operated a beauty shop in her home. She had been active in Tyler Mountain First Baptist Church and was an accomplished quilter. Leona is survived by children, Joe (Carol) Kinder of St. Petersburg, FL; David (Alice) Kinder of Elyria, OH; and Diane Hash of Ripley, WV; seven grandchildren; fourteen great-grandchildren; and one great-great granddaughter. She was preceded in death by husbands, Edgar Kinder in 1964 and Mark Mandeville in 1996; parents, Sherman and Lucy Smith; and seven siblings. A private graveside service will be at Tyler Mountain Memory Gardens, Cross Lanes, WV.

My name is Julie. I am a volunteer with Mercy New Life Hospice in Lorain. Leona was one of the patients I visited at O'Neill Healthcare for a short time from the end of February to mid March when the pandemic began. I only visited with Leona twice, when she was awake and alert. My two visits were very enjoyable and engaging. Leona discussed her joy of traveling and her quilting talent. She had a beautiful quilt on her wall and she told me that she made the one on her bed. I could see it was well worn. Leona was a beautiful woman. A true lady. I only wish you could have gotten to know her better. When I was unable to continue visiting Leona, I was sending her greeting cards, along with a recent birthday card. My heartfelt sympathies goes out to all her family. I'm sure you have many fond memories of Leona. May you find peace and comfort in this difficult time. God bless the and give you strength Julie
