Duke Gower Obituary

Duke E. Gower, 66, of North Ridgeville, died May 20, 2019. He was born July 5, 1952 in Oberlin and was a 1970 graduate of North Ridgeville High School. Duke was employed as a Computer Operator by United Consumer Financial Services of Westlake for 20 years. Duke was an avid builder of models, electronics enthusiast, and music and movie fanatic. He will be remembered for his love of aviation, history, science and general curiosities. Duke is survived by his mother, Edna Gower of North Ridgeville; siblings, Denise (Stephen) Tharrett, of Highland Village, TX, Dirk (Julie) Gower and Daniel Gower, both of Elyria; nieces and nephews, Travis and Alyssa Tharrett, Carrie (Richard) Masters, Claire Gower and Nigel Gower; and a great-nephew Edwin Masters. He was preceded in death by his father, Kenneth Gower in 2001; and a brother, David Gower in 2012. As an expression of sympathy, memorial contributions may be sent to the Prostate Cancer Research Institute, 300 Corporate Pointe, Suite 383, Culver City, CA 90056, or <https://pcri.org/>

Susan Tawney posted:

I am so sorry for your lose. I have worked with Duke for the 20 years that he has worked in the Computer room at UCFS. He was a quiet guy until you got him talking about something that he was interested in. He will be deeply missed by us all here at UCFS. May he rest in peace.
