Kathleen Butler posted:

I had the pleasure of meeting the Fitzgerald family when they moved in next door on 12th St late 1950s. Patsy and I became close friends and I loved Mrs Fitzgerald. She was so kind and loving. Many nights I stayed overnight at their house. Her parents took us to Cedar Point beach, the Blue Hole, and many other outings. They were so much fun. I'm so saddened to hear of her passing and that of Mr Fitzgerald. I just recently found out about Patsy's passing in 1991, and was shocked and saddened. Fitzgeralds were wonderful people, and I'll always treasure my time with them. Kathleen O'Dowd
