I knew John since our early days at Eastern Heights he was fullback and Jesse and I were halfbacks. John opened a lot of holes and paths for us to run through, as he continued to do for others throughout his life. He was a good man who will be missed. Rest in peace John.

Life long friends are one of our greatest treasures in life. John was a good friend and loved his family very much. If I started laughing while on Facebook ,Tom always said John must be posting. Another one of his gifts, to make people laugh. He will be always in our hearts. Hugs to the Barry Family
