Sending the Barbee family our deepest condolences for the loss of your brother Lewis. He was one of the first people I met when we moved here 49 years ago. He had a smile, and a special sense of humor that made him the kind of person you loved to be around. He will always be remembered and never forgotten. May he rest in Peace in God's hands for Eternity. Lewis Jack, you will be missed here on Earth, but we'll see you again in Heaven. Sincerely, Donna, and Moses Hutchinson
