Please accept my condolences for your loss of a cherished loved one. I have found my greatest comfort in knowing that this is not the way it is supposed to be- and that God will soon wipe away our tears and eliminate death once and for all. . (Psalms 37:9-11, 29; Rev 21:3,4)

I personally got to know the REAL Nick when were in treatment together. He was funny, caring, and kind hearted. I have had the honor to meet his mother and father, who I know did everything they possibly could to help Nick. Words can not express my deepest sympathies, I love you Nick and I hope your smiling down on us wearing that new Indians hat I gave you!
