I am a high school friend of Ian's. I am blessed to have been able to spend time with him over the last few years when I was home visiting. I will cherish the time I was given with him and our long chats about tattoos and motorcycles. I will remember Ian as a strong, honest man with the strength and love of many. It is a small comfort knowing he is with God and his mom now. Love and prayers be with his family now and always. Love me. xoxo

I wish we'd gotten to spend more time together growing up! Glad to call you a cousin, you made being kids fun! You had a sense of humor and a heart of gold that never quit, no matter what the situation was... a trait you have inherited from a lot of our family members! I know you will be missed by so many. Prayers go out to your family and especially your daughter, who I am sure has so many special memories of you to carry on. We love you, the world will never be the same without your smiling face.
