We have probably known Mary most of our lives due to her being friends with our Aunt Dodo and Uncle Johnny. However, as adults we certainly have shared many laughs with her. Mary visited us in AZ with Dodo and we will laugh forever at the picture of us in our "fat wrap" dancing to oldies to shed a few pounds. Being with Mary was an adventure in life and a lesson on living life. We all remember Mary for having such a big heart, a zeal for life and an infectious laugh, and we extend our sincerest sympathies to her family. The Schumar Sisters

God Bless you Aunt Mary. You were an amazing woman and I always remember your saying "When life gives you lemons...make lemonade". I know you now rest with the Lord along with Uncle Jim and Jan.

My condolences go out to the family. Mrs. Miller was a wonderful lady. I went to East Carlisle from K-6 back in the earlier 70's and Mrs. Miller was such a wonderful person. I will see here from time to time and she always remembered my name. Heaven is receiving a wonderful lady!!!
