A drian Caywood Obituary

Adrian W. Caywood, 75, of Elyria, died Wednesday, December 21, 2011 at Wesleyan Village in Elyria. He was born April 20, 1936 in Marietta, OH, graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree from Marietta College and served in the U.S. Army from 1958 to 1962. He later moved to Elyria, where he taught for 30 years at Elyria High School. He also served as Executive President of Lamplight Industries in Lorain, which supplied streetlamps throughout Lorain County. Adrian is survived by a sister Patresa DeMent of Port Charlotte, Florida, friend and caregiver, Glen Mikolanda of Lorain and longtime companion and caregiver Pamela Roe of Elyria. He was preceded in death by a brother Jerome L. Jay in 1996 and his parents Edwin C. & Verna J. (nee Goodnight) Caywood. Dicken Funeral Home and Cremation Service, Elyria handled arrangements. Memorial contributions may be made to Friendship Animal Protective League of Lorain County, 8303 Murray Ridge Road Elyria, OH 44035-4746 or New Life Hospice, 5255 N. Abbe Rd., Elyria, OH 44035. Sorry to hear of Adrian's passing. I enjoyed the rare times when we could get together at family gatherings. Always enjoyed our deep discussions on antique cars... He was the expert... I just listened and learned a lot.

Sorry to hear of the passing of Adrian. We were in same graduating class at Marietta High School. Enjoyed his company as we grew up and almost had him interested in 'ham' radio as a hobby. My condolences to the family.
