I feel so very blessed to have had such a wonderful mother. She had a smile for everyone and when anyone needed her she was there. All eight of her children, their spouses and the grand children are going to miss her dearly. To my siblings, may mom's memories live within your hearts and help make the pain of losing her a little easier. We know she will always be with us even though we can't see her or touch her, know she is here. She didn't want to leave us behind. I can feel her presence with me still. Love, Carolyn
