Listening to Friday Night football on WEOL while stuffing our face with Geno's Pizza were only a few of the fond memories I have of time spent in the Horvath home at 124 Seneca St. A kid couldn't help but feast on the delicious treats Mrs. Horvath could whip up on a moments notice. She kept her "kids" in check with her tough exterior but inside she had a heart of gold. I'll regret not being able to stop by and say hello the next time I'm in Elyria and have that big dog scare the bejesus out of me.
